Road cess clerks of the 24-Pargana Collectorate. Certain road cess clerks of the 24-Pargana Collectorate appealed that the increments to their salaries which they have hitherto drawn, might not be stopped. The progressive salaries of these clerks were sanctioned by what was at the time competent authority—the District Committee—and when the control over the Cess establishment was retransferred to the Board, the action of the controlling authority for the time being should have been upheld. The Board were accordingly told to allow the existing increments to draw their increments and to make it at the same time clearly understood that the pay of the appointments will be fixed on the occurrence of the next vacancy	R.
