MALIKANA IN LANDS—
Shahabad. Collector expressed his sense of the great justice of Government in permitting those zemindars who have obtained—to annex it to their hereditary estates. The vexations, uncertainty, and frequent injustice consequent to the late system have in most cases driven these people to apply for a tenth of their estates in land. They thought it better to resign all pretensions to the management of the bulk of their property than to be subject to the depredatory interference of the aumils of Government, an interference which has often times annihilated their proprietary rights ...	8th Oct.	23-24
