Chittagong. Expectation of Collector that in course of time a considerable increase to the present—of 1198 B.S. might be effected by the discovery of increased cultivation, secreted lands, and unauthorized charity tenures, and by holding out encouragement to talookdars to bring the waste lands into cultivation. Board observed that it is not consistent with the principles of decennial regulations to require from the landholders any additional revenue during the currency of their present engagements on account of increase of cultivation which might be effected by them within the limits of their own zemindaries. With regard to secreted lands and unauthorized charity tenures, Collector instructed to resume the latter under the regulation of lakhiraj lands, and to report with respect to the former the nature of the tenure under which they are held. As to the cultivation of waste lands by talookdars and others and the prejudicial tendency of Joynugur grant with respect to such lands, Collector referred to the 5th article of the regulation passed by Government on the 23rd November 1791. If the talookdars paying revenues to the Joynugur zemindar be of the same description as the talookdars mentioned in the above regulation, Collector should apply the regulation in all cases of complaints of the nature mentioned in the regulation being made to him...	3rd Dec.	14-18

..... Talooks Paurrah and Pubbea. Under the explanation given by the talookdars, Collector considered the distribution of—not necessary, as the ryots appeared to him rather as mokurrerydars paying rent at a fixed rate. Board observed that by the orders of Government regarding delivery of—, it was not intended that any rights of tenure-holders should be infringed, provided they were not incompatible with the Regulations. In cases where no written deeds are in possession of tenure-holders, Board considered it would be proper that they should take out pottabs describing the nature of their tenures, and stating specifically the sums or rates of rent which are payable by them ...	5th Nov.	31
Bhagulpore. Bengal portion. Collector represented the difficulties experienced in enforcing compliance with the Regulations regarding distribution of—in cases where zemindars have parcelled out part of their estates to undertenants and kutkeenadars. RENT—
Dacca. Collector reported his intention to abolish the practice of adjusting—upon measurement of lands after cultivation, as it is open to oppression, and to introduce permanent pottabs for a specific sum; but this object, he stated, cannot be effected owing to, in most cases, the lands being annually liable to encroachment of rivers, and the unwillingness of ryots in such cases to take pottabs for fixed periods or at specific rent. Collector informed that if the pottabs to be granted to ryots holding lands subject to encroachment of rivers contain a clause stipulating that the ryots are to be allowed an equitable deduction in consequence of any land lost by the operation of rivers, they can have no objection to enter into engagements binding themselves under the above stipulation to pay a certain quota of revenue, or at a certain rate, at least for the period of one year ...	19th Dec. 36-38

Bhagulpore. Tuppah Mudhun, pergunnah Colgong. The terms offered by the proprietor for novennial—being inadequate, Collector retained the tuppah khas at the jumma of Rs. 3,830-11-14, and proposed to make a khas mofussil settlement of the tuppah with the under-renters, and to grant necessary advances of tuckavy. Board sanctioned the proposal, provided the proprietor still refuses to take settlement at the jumma fixed on the tuppah, taking care, in concluding settlement with the under-renters, to obtain the best security procurable from them, adequate to the discharge of both the Government revenue and the proprietary allowance to be paid to the zemindar. Subsequent report by Collector of non-receipt of offers for the settlement of the mehal. Board desired him to call upon the village muckuddums, who are independent proprietors of the soil, to engage for their lands, and to inform them under what engagements with Government the under-renters who may not be independent proprietors have paid their revenues for the current year 1199 F.S., and to ascertain whether they are willing to engage for the lands held by them for the ensuing year at such jumma as he may think just	10th Aug. 19th Oct. 17th Dec.	34-41 1-4 4-9

Dacca. Pergunnah Govindpore. Refusal of the proprietor to enter into engagements on the jumma of 1197, on the plea that out of this jumma Rs. 428-0-3-2 is of his nij land, and the remaining sum, Rs. 663-5-16-2, is of the property of talookdars entitled to separation; and that he cannot enter into engagements for the property of the talookdars, but is willing to take settlement of his nij lands. Collector represented the difficulty of realizing revenue from talookdars who are mostly tuckmina, and explained the nature of the tuckmina tenures. Board desired Collector to call upon the proprietor to enter into engagement for his whole estate, including the jumma of the tuckmina talookdars, whom they considered as not entitled to separation; and instructed him, in the event of the zemindar's refusal, to advertize the pergunnah for farm	2nd July 8th Oct.	12-14 6-9

—, Pergunnah Madareepore. Refusal of the proprietor to engage for nine years—unless an abatement of Rs. 48 from the jumma of 1197 is allowed him on account of mataharrappa, abolished. Collector recommended Board to allow the abatement asked for by the proprietor. Board referred Collector to their orders of 21st July 1790 prohibiting recognition of any claims for abatement of revenue on account of abolition of mataharrappa, and directed him to call upon the proprietor to engage at the jumma of 1197 B.S. In the event of the proprietor's refusal, the pergunnah to be advertised for farm. Collector explained that Rs. 48 used to be collected from the mehal called Bawni Lall, annexed to Madareepore in 1197, on account of a tax levied on the weavers residing in the city of Dacca, and as this tax has been discontinued on the abolition of shawbunder, the proprietor is entitled to the abatement claimed by him. Board desired Collector to inform them whether the proprietor obtained any deduction on this account on the abolition of shawbunder, and what collection he has since made from the mehal Bawni Lall	2nd July 8th Oct.	11-14 6-9

... 5 annas 10 gundas. Offer of the proprietor to engage for novennial—at the jumma of Rs. 3,200 considered inadequate by Collector who, in consequence, held the pergunnah khas, and recommended to Board the proposals of Ramsunker Bose for farming it from 1199 to 1206 B. S. at the jumma of Rs. 3,500, to be raised by rissud to Rs. 4,001 in 1203 B. S., inclusive of moshahara to be paid by Government to the zemindar. Board desired Collector to ascertain if the proprietor be willing to engage at the jumma offered by the farmer, and advised Government to accept the proposals of Ramsunker Bose in case the proprietor refuses to take settlement on the terms offered by him. Government sanctioned Board's recommendation. Collector reported the willingness of the proprietor to engage at the jumma offered by the farmer, provided he be allowed deduction on account of moshahara. Board rejected the offer and instructed Collector to call upon the proprietor to engage on the terms offered by the farmer and report the result	2nd July 16th July 8th Oct.	11-14 35 6-9
Pergunnah Sreerampore. Proprietors refused to take—for nine years from 1198 to 1206 B.S. of their nij lands after separation of the lands of talookdars at the jumma of 1197 B.S., Rs. 874-4-15-1, on the grounds of the assets of the lands having been diminished owing to the encroachments of adjacent rivers, and offered to engage at the jumma of Rs. 554. Government accepted the offer on the Collector's and Board's recommendation	2nd July 8th Oct. 2nd Nov.	11-13 6-10 9
Talook Doorga Gungessor, pergunnah Ootershavazpore. Refusal of the proprietor to engage for the novennial—unless he be allowed to take his lands at the jumma of Rs. 791. Collector, in consequence, recommended the offer of Ramguttay Sein for farming the talook for eight years from 1199 to 1206 B.S. at the jumma of Rs. 1,200 for 1199, Rs. 1,300 for 1200, and Rs. 1,350 from 1201 to 1206. Board instructed Collector to accept the terms offered by Ramguttay Sein for farming the mehal, provided the proprietor refuses to take settlement on the same terms. Government approved Board's instructions. Midnapore. Pergunnah Cossijora. Reply of Collector to the observations of Board on the decennial—of the pergunnahs held khas in 1197 and 1198 W.S. His reasons for not adopting tehsildar's collection but canoongoe's hustabood, tested by ameen's investigation, as basis in forming the settlement, and explanation of inability in making retrenchments in the religious and household charges of the zemindar. Board informed Government of the instructions issued to Collector at different times respecting the settlement of the district, and forwarded his proceedings on the settlement of Cossijora with their opinion. Government agreed with Board in considering the explanation of Collector of his inability to reduce the religious and other charges of the zemindary unsatisfactory, and directed to resume Rs. 20,000 of these charges from the shares of Sundernarin and Samul Doss, leaving them to make proportionate retrenchments in such articles of these charges as they may think proper, to add Sundernarin's proportion of the above resumed sum to the jumma of Rs. 2,04,063 proposed by Collector, and require Sundernarin to execute decennial engagements for the aggregate amount, commencing from 1197 W.S. Collector informed	3rd Aug. 20th Aug.	16-17 12
Pergunnah Cossijora. Suggestion of Board to call the zemindars before them to endeavour to conclude permanent—of the pergunnah with them negatived. Government desired Board to require the attendance of Collector to give an account of the state of settlement of his district, and to explain the cause of the little progress that has been made towards its conclusion, as well as of his repeated deviations from their instructions.
