ARREARS, DELINQUENCY IN—continued. Tirhoot. Considerable losses since the formation of ten years' settlement having been sustained by landholders in consequence of the encroachments of Ganges and Gunder, they solicited that an average jumma might be fixed on the gross produce of their estates for the last ten years. Board pointed out to Collector that whatever engagements have been executed by the proprietors for payment of Government revenue must be considered as binding upon them in perpetuity, and that it is his essential duty to prevent the landholders imbibing an impression that they will be released from their engagements either at the expiration of the current year or any other period.	17th Sept. 61
ENGAGEMENT FOR PAYMENT OF GOVERNMENT REVENUE— Dacca. It having occurred to Collector that heavy arrears are due from lands, the property of disqualified landholders placed in charge of zamindars vested with their entire management, suggested that it would be proper to oblige them to deliver in talooks for their respective estates with good security for payment of jumma due to Government.
