Of a resumed tenure in the possession of different individuals. Board ruled that in an instance of the above description the proprietor should be allowed the option of separate settlements, and each separate portion will then take its place on the towzoh as a distinct mehal. But if no separate settlement is claimed, and the lands have been assessed as a single mehal, the recusancy of any one of the proprietors will render the whole tenure liable to be let in farm for a term of years, as it would be productive of much inconvenience and confusion to allow one portion to be settled in perpetuity while another of the same mehal let in farm	6th Oct.	72-73
