SCARCITY OF SALT—Western Chowkies. Great distress having been felt by the inhabitants of the country near Jhaldah Chowkey on account of—, Superintendent authorized to sell on the spot the confiscated salt lodged at that chowkey in small quantities varying from 5 to 10 maunds for ready money instead of closing with the offer of Krishnapersad for 100 maunds, and directed to suggest such measures as may be best adapted to guard against the suffering distress of the people in future for want of this necessary article, taking care that the measures he may recommend shall not interfere with the concerns of the purchasers at the public sales ...	20th Aug. 1st Oct.	26-27 11-13
SEARCHING OF HOUSES FOR CONTRABAND SALT—
Government having considered the question referred to by the Board of Trade relative to the searching of houses and golahs for the purpose of discovering contraband salt, do not deem it to be necessary to extend the authority of the officers in the Salt Department beyond the limits to which that authority is restricted by Regulation VI of 1801 ...
Government intimated to the Board that under section XII of Regulation VI of 1801, salt illegally manufactured, sold, or transported, is equally liable to seizure, whether found in houses or golahs, or in boats or elsewhere, and that it will be perfectly consistent with that regulation that the officers of the Salt Department should adhere to the established practice of searching houses or golahs on receiving information of smuggled salt being lodged therein without applying to the officers of the police, it being clearly understood that such search is to be made by the Salt Department of their own authority in those cases in which the proprietors of the houses or golahs shall voluntarily agree to the search being made ...	30th July	10-11
Government considered it inexpedient that the officers of the Salt Department (whatever may be the extent of the powers vested in them by Regulation VI of 1801) should forcibly enter and search any dwelling house or golah of their own authority for the purpose of seizing salt stated to be smuggled. In cases in which the officers of the Salt Department shall have satisfactory reason for believing that smuggled salt is deposited in any house or golah, and the proprietors shall refuse to admit of the house or golah being searched by those officers, it will be their duty to take the necessary measures for preventing the removal of any salt from the house or golah and to apply to the officers of the nearest police station for their assistance in— ...	30th July	10-11
