Furruckabad Custom House. Umleen ... } Customs, Agra, has " " " Beroom ... } satisfactorily shown " " " Muttrah Ghât ... } that the withdrawing of all—established at a greater distance than five miles beyond the boundaries of the head station at Agra would not only diminish the amount of duties at present collected under section 18 of the Regulation on the internal transit trade of that district, but materially affect the revenue arising from the collection of duty on the export and import trade of the country, and that it is their intention to authorise whatever chowkies may be indispensably necessary for giving due effect to the provi- sions of sections 15 and 35 of the Regulation, and to withdraw such chowkies established for collection of duty on the internal transit trade of the country from zillah to zillah as may have been stationed at a greater distance than five miles beyond the boundary of the Sudder station of each zillah, except where a deviation from the prescribed rule may be expedient ...	25th March 13-19
... Collector directed to submit separate sketches of the districts of Agra and Furruckabad, showing the posi- tions of the different—in each district, and their respective distance from the Sudder station	25th March 13-19
... Collector directed to call upon the Deputy Collector at Agra to submit a separate list of—adapted for the city of Muttrah as head station of Agra, to which the collection of Govern- ment customs as well as that of the town duties may eventually be transferred	25th March 13-19
Goruckpore Custom House. Board of opinion that the—proposed to be established for collection of Government customs on the import and export trade of the district are necessary	25th March 44
... Collector informed that it is not the Board's intention that any—which may be indispensably necessary for giving effect to the provisions of Regulation XI of 1804 shall be withdrawn, and directed to submit separate sketches of the districts appertaining to the proposed Sudder station, showing the position of the different chowkies in each district, and their respective distance from the Sudder station	25th March 44
Shaharanpore Custom House. It appearing by the position of the— proposed to be established for collection of duties that several of them are situated at a distance considerably exceeding the distance prescribed by Government for establishment of chowkies for collection of Government customs on the internal transit trade of the country from zillah to zillah, Board furnished Collector with copies of letters explanatory of the inten- tion of Government in establishing Regulation XI of 1804, and desired him to withdraw all chowkies established for collection of duty which may have been stationed at a greater distance than five miles beyond the boundary of the sudder stations of Saharanpore and Meerut	25th March 45
CIRCULAR ORDER—Irregularity in issue of a rowanah from Goruckpore Custom House for six months without the seal and signature of Collector, noticed by Board. Collectors of Customs in the Ceded and Conquered Provinces referred to the provisions of clause V, section XXVI of Regulation XI of 1804, and informed that all rowanahs granted under clause I, section XXVII of that Regulation shall be considered to be in force for one year from the date on which they shall be respectively granted; any row- anahs irregularly granted to be dealt with as directed	25th April 5-9
COMMISSION—
Barriely Custom House. Board's reference to Government relative to a question which has arisen between the present and late Collector res- pecting the appropriation of—accruing on collections levied by former during the period in which the duties of that station were conducted by him previously to his being permanently appointed to his present office	27th May 9-12
Calcutta Custom House. Omission of the Commander of the Persever- ance to include 204 bags of betle-nut in the manifest of the vessel being accidental, Collector directed to pass the articles on payment of the usual—	14th Jan. 3-4

SUBJECT.	Month and Number.
CUTCHERY —Goruckpore Custom House. As no charge for—rent appears to have been incurred by former Collectors since the establishment of a Custom House at that station, Board desired Collector before submitting his proposition to hire a cutchery at a monthly rent of Rs. 60 for use of the Customs Department; to state how the accommodation necessary for conducting the business of the office was provided by those Collectors, and to submit a full report on the point	18th April	29
DUTY — Allyghar Custom House. Collector's proposal to extend the collection of town duties to all the other principal towns in the district, negatived by Board, as it would essentially interfere with the intention of Government in regard to the internal transit trade of the country from zillah to zillah, and also be contrary to the principle of the provisions of section XIV of Regulation XI of 1804, which require that all duties shall be paid at the stations of Collectors of Customs, or of their deputies	25th March	36-41
Bundlecund Custom House. Board of opinion that it would be inexpedient at present to extend the operation of Regulation VI of 1804 for collection of town duties beyond the principal town or head station in Bundlecund, as the proposed extension would impose a necessity for causing the collection of town duties at Cuipee to be made by a native officer contrary to the provisions of section XIV of that Regulation, which requires that all duties leviable under that Regulation shall be paid at the Sadder station of Collectors of Customs, or of their deputies	25th March	43
Collector informed that he should clearly understand that all the provisions contained in sections 15, 17, 34, and 35 of Regulation XI of 1804 and such parts of Regulations VI and VII of 1804 as have not been altered or modified by Regulation XI of 1804, which relate to collection of the prescribed duties on the export and import trade of the country, are to remain in full force	25th March	43
Calcutta Custom House. Omission of the Commander of the Perseverance to include 204 bags of betel-nuts in the manifest of the vessel being accidental, Collector directed to pass the articles on payment of usual duties Board's instruction to Collector to pass free of— all the horses, mules, and baggages of His Excellency the Persian Ambassador and his suite without examination at any of the ghâts where they may be landed	14th Jan.	3-4
Collector directed to pass on payment of usual duties and commission certain articles omitted in the manifest of the ship Admiral Aplen	18th April	1-2
Two patent presses for packing cotton and cloths imported by Mr. W. Jones from London, ordered to be passed free of—	18th April	5-6
In order to prevent the inconveniences represented by Collector to result from the present practice of assessing an import—on spirits, Board recommended to Government that the Collector's proposition of subjecting the articles of gin, brandy, rum, and every other kind of spirits, Batavia arrack excepted, to the assessment of a duty of 3½ per cent. on a fixed valuation of £ 30 per pipe, may be adopted	25th April	33-34
Ceded and Conquered Provinces. References from Collector's of Customs at Cawnpore and Furruckabad on the subject of collection of—leviable under clause IV, section XV of Regulation XI of 1801 on cotton imported into the mart of Kutchowrah situated on the right bank of the Jumna for purpose of being thence transported across that river into the Doab. Board's instructions to Collector's of Customs at Cawnpore and Furruckabad on the subject	27th May	2
Comparative statement of the amount of duties collected in those Provinces in 1804-1805 and 1805-1806, submitted to Government for transmission to Court of Directors	18th April	11-12
Circular order by Government, calling upon Collectors of Customs in the Ceded and Conquered Provinces to submit a comparative statement of the amount collected on account of Government customs for 1804 and 1805 within their jurisdiction, and to report any alterations which may appear to them to be advisable in the rates of duties, in the situation of Custom House chowkies, or in the rules for collection of duties, together with the grounds on which such alterations are considered by them to be expedient	25th March	1-12
Court of Directors noticed with satisfaction the increase in the net collection of—in 1802-1803 beyond the amount in the preceding year, amounting to Rs. 5,10,000	9th May	1
	16th May	19-22
	17th Jan.	1-2
	28th Feb.	3-4

Duty—continued.
Cuttack Custom House. Board reported to Government that on a reference to Regulation XII of 1805, it did not appear to them that the provisions contained in that Regulation were intended to supersede the existing arrangement for the Customs Department in Cuttack, the abolition within that district of the sayer, rahdary, and other internal duties, as required by section 31 of that Regulation, being considered by them to be applicable to such duties only as had relation to the conditions on which a settlement had been ordered to be made of the land revenue, and not as extending to Government customs, which being a duty collected on account of the State, and still continued in other zillahs where sayer, rahdary, and other internal duties levied by the zemindars for their own benefit have been abolished, and could not affect the terms of the settlement, ordered to be made of the land revenue ...	18th April	9-10

Question regarding assessment in future of import and export duties on all articles provided by contract. Board's recommendation that the provisions of section 17 of Regulation V of 1802 be extended to all goods provided by contract, and that the Governments of Fort St. George, Bombay, and Prince of Wales's Island be accordingly apprised that the established duties will in future be levied on all articles imported from those Presidencies, whether the articles shall have been purchased at the Company's sales or otherwise, disapproved by Government ...	25th Feb.	7-8
... ..	1st April	1

DUTY—concluded.
Representation of Mr. R. Boiller, merchant at Cawnpore, relative to the levy of duties at the Custom Houses at Calcutta, Ghazipore, Allahabad, and Cawnpore on re-exportation to Cawnpore of 20 pairs of Calcutta-made boots which were returned to the Presidency for purpose of being cleaned and redressed. Board's opinion that, agreeably to section 12 of Regulation VI of 1805, the article would be liable to payment of town—of 4 per cent. on the market-price on being imported into the town of Cawnpore ...	17th Jan. 10
Saharunpore Custom House. Collector authorised to collect the prescribed duties on articles on importation into, or exportation from, the Ceded and Conquered Provinces according to the valuation stated in the book of rates, and to submit a revised book of rates, including such articles only as are rendered liable to payment of duties by Regulation XI of 1804 ...	25th March 45
Collector informed, with reference to his enquiry whether a merchant carrying goods from Barielly or any other place in the Ceded Provinces can there receive a rowanah to export his goods out of the Saharunpore district free from further duties, that the—leviable on such goods is fully provided for by section 18 of Regulation XI of 1804 ...	25th April 29-30
